

MME. GOULD CALLS FRENCH NOBLEMEN BRUTAL FRAUDS

Says American Heiress Suffers
When She Learns Difference in Domestic Systems.

WIFE HAS NO PART IN EXPENDITURE OF MONEY

"I Love Peace and Am Surrounded by War," Sighs De Sagan's Quarry.

ROME, May 8.—Mme. Anna Gould gave a remarkable interview to Jean Ennefou, a French Journalist, today on why American girls wed titles. She said:

"I married a French aristocrat because I thought him the embodiment of fineness, of high life. Of course, I was disappointed, but I saw Paris, and learned that it does not do to differ from other people.

"One has to learn. I come from a country whose high society differs in every way from the French noblesse.
At home woman spends the money that man earns.

"If a French aristocrat marries one of our heiresses he expects her to be his banker. This wife-banker must invest all her money in an enterprise over which she has no control and that often yields her but a scant percentage.
American girls, as a rule, do not see this side of the medal, but when it is brought home to them, in time—oh, how it hurts!

"There are Americans with spirit, but we prefer the easy conversational style of the French. It's the champagne bubbles we love in French life. But some of these airy, fairy gentlemen—ah, what brutal tricksters they are—tricksters and frauds! It goes very hard with a woman when she learns that her husband is that. It makes her suffer.

"But, really, are we Americans capable of love? I don't know, but I do know that life has many disappointments. To mention only one—I love peace, and am surrounded by war."

WANT JERSEY CITY AND BAYONNE TO SHARE SEWER COST

City Engineer Sherrerd Declares
They Should Be Included in Newark District.

That Jersey City and Bayonne should pay shares of the cost of the proposed trunk sewer is the claim of Chief Engineer Morris R. Sherrerd, of the Board of Works. He is upheld in his contention by President Boock, the claim being that Newark would save $2,400,000. City Counsel Nugent and Commissioner Lambert take an opposite view, claiming that the question of Jersey City and Bayonne sharing the cost rests upon the proper interpretation of a section of the laws of 1907.

The matter was discussed at length last night at a conference of the board and finance committee of the Common Council. The law section in question reads:

"Every municipality, corporation and individual is hereby prohibited and for-bidden to discharge, directly or indirectly, any sewage or other polluting matter into the waters of the Passaic River at any point between the Great Falls in the city of Paterson and the mouth of said river at Newark Bay, or any tributary of the Passaic River which empties into the Passaic between the said points, after the 12th day of December, 1912."

Engineer Sherrerd claims the words "directly or indirectly" cover the point and that as Jersey City and Bayonne discharge their sewage into Newark Bay two and a half miles above the present mouth of the Newark sewer this city should not be compelled to bear all of the $6,250,000 as its share of the sewer's cost.

HIGHEST STRIKE IN THE WORLD LIES UP BIG SINGER BUILDING

(Special to the Evening Star.)

NEW YORK, May 8.—The highest strike in the world is on in this city, as workers in many trades have walked out of the great forty-four story Singer building at Liberty street and Broadway. The contractors are up in the air, really and figuratively, as they stare about the 703-foot monster.

The strike, which was general, with the exception of the painters, was occasioned by the employ ment of non-union labor in fitting up one of the stores with wood trim.

The work, which had been rushed by the contractors on the tallest building in the world, was stopped yesterday in a moment, and hundreds of plumbers, steam fitters, carpenters, electrical workers and representatives of all trades walked out. For the first time since the monster building was started there was a cessation of work.

The tower of the building, which is another landmark of the metropolis, was not lighted last night, as the strike had extended to the electrical workers.

ZIONISTS CHOOSE ATLANTIC CITY.
NEW YORK, May 8.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of American Zionists it was decided that the next annual convention be held at Atlantic City, N. J., from July 10 to 15.

JOHN L. DECIDES WALL STREET IS BIG SKIN GAME

"Joke of Century What They're Allowed to Get Away with," He Says.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 8.—John L. Sullivan, in years ago the admiration of the American public as the world's greatest slugger, inside or outside of a ring, has unbuckled himself of his views of Wall Street. Says John L.:

"Stocks and Wall Street! Why, it's the joke of the century what they're allowed to get away with.

"Some wise guy who wants to make a play for some foreign drug-eating duke is a little shy of the fodder to attract that special brand of cattle.

"What does he do? He swings some paper on a bum railroad, or often a concern that ain't got any value in land, sea or air. He comes along and works us into taking a slice of it.

"We can't save much on our wages.
It looks like a wise play to grab a bit of the easy stuff. You know that. We yield up the 500. Sucker play. It's gone in a minute to help the duke buy bloom-ers for ladies the Wall Street man's daughter will name when she springs the breakaway call through the voice of her high-priced lawyer.

"What happens? Can we get the Wall Street gent who flamed us arrested? Not a bit of it. Well, I should hope not. He's too necessary in picking out our United States Senators to be pushed behind the big gate.

"And it's been my great pleasure to tell some of these dollar-storing old crooks that no man ever made $5,000,000 on the level. Certainly not.
It can't be done.

"I've never met John D. But sure as I've got up against him, as sure as his old noodle is as bare of hair as his heart is of kindness, I'll tell him that one man ain't afraid to tell him that the biggest part of his pile has the fine smell of back-number limburger cheese.

"I think the time will come when there won't be such a thing as a multimillionaire.

"Why? Because the American people will wake up."

CISSY LOFTUS FORGETS LINES; FAINTS ON STAGE.

BALTIMORE, May 8.—Cissy Loftus, star of the show playing at the Maryland Theatre, forgot her lines while singing, stood awhile looking in bewildered at the matinee audience and then fell in faint. She was carried off the stage and the management announced that she had recently undergone an operation and had not fully regained her strength.

PASSENGERS ON SHIP THAT SUNK CRUISER HERE.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Aboard the White Star liner Teutonic, which arrived last night were thirty passengers transferred from the American liner St. Paul when that steamer rammed and sent to the bottom the British cruiser Gladiator off the Isle of Wight on April 25.

NEWARKERS AT SKAT TOURNAMENT.
Newark will be well represented at the eleventh national skat tournament to be held in New York City June 21 to 23, when from 4,000 to 5,000 devotees of the game will compete for valuable prizes. A $300 gold watch and chain are among them. Members of the clubs in this city have been busy for some time past practicing the popular game and expect to make a good showing.
